Marcou Transportation Group, Owner of Dav El | BostonCoach Brands Acquires Torrey Pines Transportation

San Diego-based enterprise is region's premiere executive and group Transportation Company

(Boston, MA) – Today, Marcou Transportation Group, owner of Dav El | Boston Coach, announces it has acquired Torrey Pines Transportation, the San Diego area's premiere executive and group Transportation Company.

Founded in 1987, Torrey Pines Transportation (TPT) is both a family and woman-owned business that serves its clients wherever they travel. For nearly three decades, TPT has provided an unblemished record of service and safety to corporate travelers, group managers, and private individuals.

The company carries several vehicles in its fleet, including mini-coaches, Sprinters and Teslas. In August, Torrey Pines Transportation was hailed as one of San Diego's 100 Fastest Growing Private Companies by the San Diego Business Journal. The Limousine Charter & Tour (LCT) Magazine chose Torrey Pines Transportation as the 2015 National Outstanding Operator of the Year at the annual Conference in Las Vegas this past February. Torrey Pines Transportation was chosen because the company provides reliable and excellent customer service to corporate, group and individual clients.

Additional terms of the acquisition are not being disclosed.

"The acquisition of Torrey Pines Transportation is important to the Dav El | BostonCoach transportation network because it is a natural extension of our current footprint in California, expanding further south to San Diego," said Scott Solombrino, President and Chief Executive Officer for Dav El|BostonCoach. "More acquisitions are to come, as we play out a strategy to consolidate the highly fragmented chauffeured transportation business."
